Designing Our Future. Committed to our Communities.

Team Bergmann employees share the belief that we can build a better world by design. Our team consists of some of the most passionate, creative and dynamic professionals across the industries of Architecture, Engineering and Planning. We bring authenticity to our projects, while developing deep connections in the communities we serve.

Connected

Bergmann professionals have spent the past 40 years developing strong relationships with clients, partners and community stakeholders through engagement and collaboration. With a local presence in cities across the Northeast, Midwest and Atlantic regions, Team Bergmann is an accessible and trusted partner that can be counted on to deliver a job done right.

Community

Rely on Team Bergmann to support the communities where our employees live and work. Our employees can spend 8 hours each year volunteering through our corporate Day of Giving program. In addition, our employees serve on boards, donate to worthy non-profits, lend their professional expertise through mentoring programs and so much more.

Sustainability

At Bergmann, we seek opportunities to promote environmental and functional sustainability both in our work and through the community activities we support. We offer design options that deliver enduring benefits to both our projects partners and the community.
